Unions say refinery workers across UK may go on sympathy strike

Picture by Martin Dalton

CORYTON SET TO CLOSE WITHIN THREE MONTHS

By Paul Peterson

THE Coryton Refinery is expected to close within the next three months after administrators failed to find a buyer.

Union leaders said refinery workers throughout the country could strike in sympathy, causing potential fuel shortages.

Alex Flynn, from Unite, said the union believes the Coryton refinery has a future.

Mr Flynn said: "We are looking at support from other refineries but we are impaired by the Bank Holiday. If it were the case someone took over the site and used it as a terminal facility it would only take a handful of people to run it."

"We are very much in the view the government need to consider the ability to refine in the UK."

Experts at PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) confirmed on Tuesday that the refinery's closure was underway.

The news follows their failure to find anyone with the $1 billion (£625million) needed to save the troubled refinery despite interest from more than 100 investors and purchasers over the last four months.

The closure programme began with talks between union leaders and PwC. It is expected to take three months before all operations cease. A PwC spokesman said the company would continue to actively seek a buyer for the site, right up until the final week. He said: "We are still in talks about a potential rescue."

Although closure is not certain, PwC has warned that there may be a 'substantial number' of redundancies from the 500-strong work force at Coryton.

The administrators called refinery staff and contractors to an urgent meeting on Monday to set out the situation and start consulting with trade union officials and staff representatives.

Steven Pearson, from PwC, said the challenge of raising the funds including a $150m capital expenditure turnaround project proved prohibitive in the face of an over supplied European refinery market for both buyers and investors.

He said: "We've worked tirelessly to explore all options for the refinery but have been unable to reach a deal to date.

"The current financing market is exceptionally difficult as capital is short and expensive. Prospective investors in the refinery faced a significant capital expenditure need, as well as a fragile market for refined oil products. These factors have conspired against us in trying to structure a deal."

The administrators confirmed all work connected with the refinery turnaround programme has been suspended, but that discussions regarding a possible sale would continue.

Mr Pearson added: "I'd like to thank the management, the employees, contractors, customers and suppliers at Coryton for their support and solidarity. Without their commitment we would not have been afforded the opportunity to continue the business and explore a going concern solution."

PwC was appointed as administrators for Coryton at the end of January after the Swiss based firm Petroplus which owns the Thurrock based refinery were forced into administration.

Museum is celebrating London bus centenary

WALTHAM Forest's rich industrial heritage is to be brought to life on Sunday as part of celebrations marking 100 years of London buses.

The event, which was masterminded by the Walthamstow Pumphouse Museum, is set to feature a decade-spanning pageant of some 30 vehicles.

The procession will start at 9.30am at the Royal Forest Hotel, in Chingford, pass the borough's bus stations and the old AEC works site at Blackhorse Road and finish at the Pumphouse Museum where an event will also be held.

Residents are encouraged to line the streets and take in the sight as the splendid historic vehicles travel the borough.

June represents the Centenary of the Builders of London's Buses. The company which made the buses, Associated Equipment Company, was based in Walthamstow until 1927.

The pageant itself dovetails with the recent signing of a 30-year lease for the Pumphouse site between Waltham Forest Council and the Museum.

Museum director Lindsay Collier said: "We'd like to thank the council for granting the lease so our proposed development can proceed and become a part of the exciting future cultural offer for Waltham Forest."

Major plans are currently underway for the Museum's development, and more information can be found online at www.walthamstowpumphousemuseum.org.uk

Hospital plays host to Japanese delegation

A GROUP of 20 doctors and health specialists from Japan have visited Newham Hospital to learn about the UK's approach to care of the elderly. National health federation Ja-Zenkouren owns and manage a range of hospitals, clinics and health and welfare facilities in Japan.

Newham Hospital, part of Barts Health NHS Trust since April, is recognised nationally as a site of best practice for care of elderly people.

NUH medical director, Mike Gill, said: "We are very proud of our care of the elderly services and delighted that medical professionals around the world are interested to see how we are managing to improve outcomes for our older patients."

WELCOME: Doctors and health specialists from Japan pictured at Newham University Hospital after their tour of the hospital's care of the elderly facilities.

Police uncover cannabis factory

FOUND: Police uncovered a drugs factory in Leyton.

POLICE have uncovered a cannabis factory in Leyton.

Officers from the Grove Green Safer Neighbourhoods Team executed a warrant in Francis Road last Thursday and found 35 cannabis plants and a large amount of hydroponics equipment in two of the rooms.

No one was in the flat at the time and no arrests have been made.

PC Ian McGill, of Neighbourhood Tasking Team, said: "Cannabis factories pose a considerable hazard due to the abstraction of electricity and use of flammable liquids.

"Thanks to the information from the community, we have been able to disrupt this supply of drugs that can fuel anti-social behaviour and fund other criminal activity. We want to ensure this community is safe so if you have information about crime in your area then contact us. We will take action."

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers' and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
